Literature:

Auguste Toulmouche (1829-1890)

Toulmouche was an accomplished French painter, born in Nantes in 1829. He started exhibiting his Genre compositions and interior scenes at the Paris Salon of 1848, eventually also earning a medal at the 1878 Exposition Universelle where he was an exhibitor. Toulmouche was made a Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur in 1870, and his paintings are in several museum collections including at the Louvre and Museum of Fine Art in Boston.
